

AKEEP [Alabama-Korea Education and Economic Partnership] has offered prestigious leadership programs for Koreans & Americans since 2012.

AKEEP CIVIL RIGHTS LEADERSHIP PROGRAM 2016-GP1

The 5,000 years history of a Homogeneous nation with one-blood has been a long pride of the Koreans. Hyundai Research Institute reports that 44.2% of South Koreans do NOT think of their 1.6 million immigrants or migrant workers as their neighbors. Are South Koreans genuinely ready to embrace multiracial 21st century?

AKEEP will offer a Premium Program which focuses on the journey of the Civil Rights and Democracy from the Cradle of the Civil Rights Movements of the World in 2016 January-February for Korean Professionals!

AKEEP has partnered with AKEEP Consortium Institutions for this program and named it AKEEP CIVIL RIGHTS LEADERSHIP PROGRAM. Global-Korean Professionals, AKEEP will receive a genuine opportunity to meet with living regents of the Civil Rights Movements, historians, journalists, citizens who lived through the challenging era, visit historical centers and much more. To make the program real alive, the classes will be held from the actual historic site, Troy University's Rosa Parks Museum, Montgomery, Alabama.

The participants will learn Alabama's leadership role in American Civil Rights history, human rights, diversity, equality, justice and pursuit of happiness, its past, current and future.

The program format will consist of four sessions on each topic.

- 1) Lecture on how to do, write and complete a research paper in MLA format
- 2) Lecture & Seminar on theme "Civil Rights"
- 3) Field Trips to the historic sites
- 4) Discuss/ Forum with Leaders of the topic
- 5) Research write up, revision & submission

Visits at Historic Sites:

Rosa Parks Museum, Civil Rights Memorial Center, Dexter Parsonage Museum (Dr. Martin Luther King Home), Dexter Baptist Church, the City of Selma, Edmund Pettus Bridge, the First White House of the Confederacy, Alabama State Capitol, Alabama State House, Alabama State University, and many more...

Many sub-Topics to choose from:

Rosa Parks, Dr. Martin Luther King, Voting Rights, Montgomery Bus Boycott, Democracy, Politics, Alabama's Leadership, Civil Rights, Human Rights, Racial Issues, Multicultural ethnicity and/ or something in your mind. It can be from historical perspective from the past, their reality and/or perception of the time...

Don't be burdened:

Excellent AKEEP instructors will assist you from how to do a research, write, improve and finalize from your idea, to what you initiated, discovered, and learned from this experience.

2016 AKEEP CIVIL RIGHTS LEADERSHIP PROGRAM will help you! A Global-Korean Professional who shall lead the Korea.
