The screenshot shows the Coursera interface for Sungkyunkwan University. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Coursera logo, a search bar containing the text "What do you want to learn?", and a user profile for "John Doe". Below the navigation bar is a large banner image of a university building with the text "Welcome to Sungkyunkwan University on Coursera" and "Start learning on Coursera!". Underneath the banner, there are two tabs: "My Courses" and "Browse Catalog", with the latter highlighted by a red box. Below the tabs, there is a section titled "Curated recommendations for you" with a sub-heading "Coronavirus". This section displays four course tiles. The first tile is "Mind Control: Managing Your Mental Health During COVID-19" by the University of Toronto. The second is "COVID-19: What You Need to Know (CME Eligible)" by Johns Hopkins University. The third, highlighted with a red box, is "Fighting COVID-19 with Epidemiology: A Johns Hopkins Teach-Out" by Johns Hopkins University. The fourth is "Science Matters: Let's Talk About COVID-19" by Imperial College London. A blue arrow points from a text box at the bottom to the third tile.

About this Course

This free Teach-Out is for anyone who has been curious about how we identify and measure outbreaks like the COVID-19 epidemic and wants to understand the epidemiology of these infections.

The COVID-19 epidemic has made many people want to understand the science behind pressing questions like: "How many people have been infected?" "How do we measure who is infected?" "How infectious is the virus?" "What can we do?" Epidemiology has the tools to tell us how to collect and analyze the right data to answer these questions.

In addition to a basic understanding of these essential tools, this Teach-Out provides a way for you to learn and connect with one another while continuing to practice the social distancing measures that will help keep us safe. We also hope to provide you with some tangible calls to action that will help you affect positive change for yourself, your community, and our society.

Certificate of Completion

You can access your certificate of completion under the Accomplishments option from the dropdown in top-right corner, displaying your name.

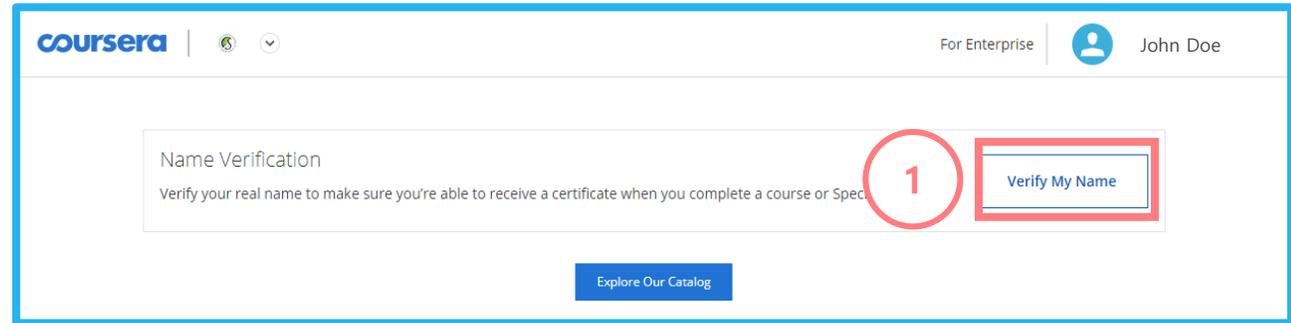

1. Click “Verify My Name”
2. Put your official first name and last name → click “Submit”
3. Download the certificate and Submit to SKKU

※ A guideline for submitting certificate to get recognition of 12 hours (New 3 Pum, Changeui Part) will be uploaded within November.

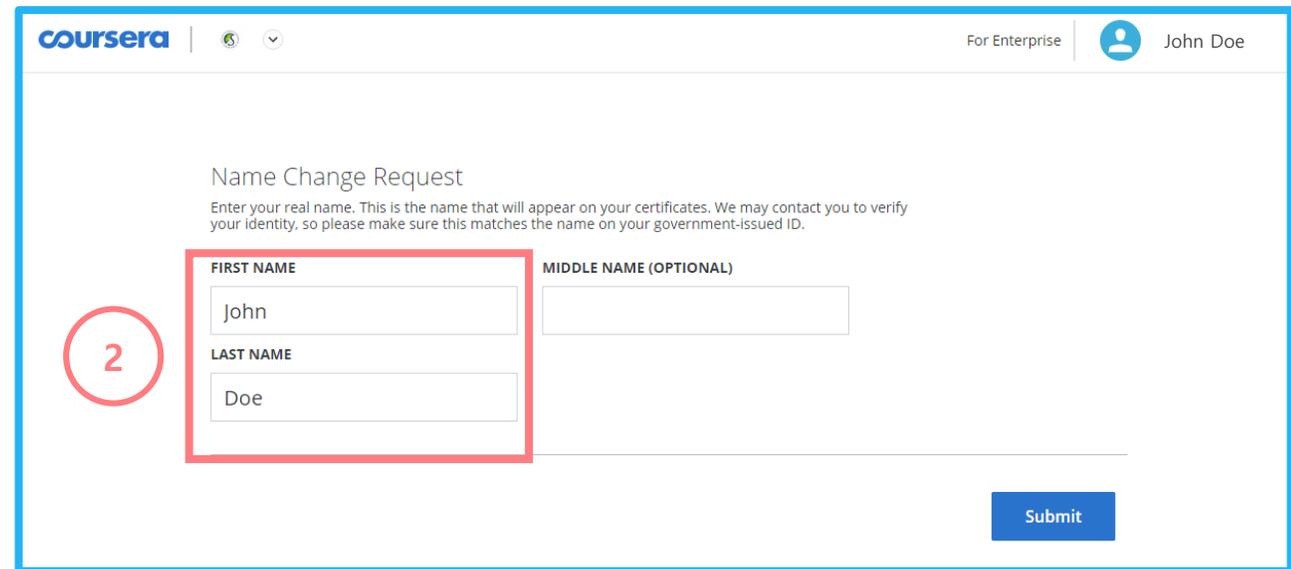

※ Only a course with 12 or more hours to complete will be recognized

Ex)

- Taking one course with 4 hours, one course with 8 hours will not be recognized
- Even if you complete a course with more than 12 hours, only 12 hours will be recognized for Changeui Part

The screenshot shows the 'Name Change Request' form on Coursera. The header is the same as the previous screenshot. The form title is 'Name Change Request' with the instruction: 'Enter your real name. This is the name that will appear on your certificates. We may contact you to verify your identity, so please make sure this matches the name on your government-issued ID.' The form has four input fields: 'FIRST NAME' (containing 'John'), 'MIDDLE NAME (OPTIONAL)' (empty), 'LAST NAME' (containing 'Doe'), and a fourth empty field. A red circle with the number '2' highlights the 'FIRST NAME' and 'LAST NAME' fields. A red rectangle highlights the entire form area. A 'Submit' button is located at the bottom right of the form.

The screenshot shows the Coursera Help Center page. At the top, there is a yellow banner with a message about high support volumes. Below this is a search bar and a 'Log In' button. A red circle with the number '2' is placed over the 'Log In' button. The main content area is titled 'How can we help?' and features a search bar. Below the search bar, there are four 'Help Topics' represented by icons: 'Account Setup' (with a red circle '3' pointing to the search bar), 'Payments', 'Enrollment', and 'Troubleshooting'. An 'All Topics' button is located at the bottom right.

The screenshot shows the 'Help Articles' page. It features a section titled 'Get Help with Coursera' with a red circle '4' next to it. The text explains that most issues can be resolved without contacting an agent. A list of common issues is provided, including requests for refunds, peer-reviewed assignments, programming assignments, payment problems, and missing certificates. At the bottom, there is a link to email support for technical or accessibility issues.
